

Share your life with an image

Keep it in your pocket
Keep it in your bag
Keep it with you at all times
Let it get wrinkled
Let it wear
The more you use it,
                  the more intimately it becomes a part of your life
It will listen to your conversations
Your dreams
Your nightmares
It will contain your memories
Let it fill you with warmth

A year later, if you still have it
On the Summer solstice
Please, send it back :
Komvos. Anafi. 84009. Greece

Many thanks,
